- Integrated parcel shipping
- Space saving all-in-one design
- Colour touchscreen operation
- Quiet desktop performance

Improve efficiency and spend

The TMR c65+ is the simplest all-in-one franking technology for office mailing. Our complete sending solution makes it easy to process mail, all in one place.

You can easily choose the right class or service to get your items delivered — all at the best price for your needs.

Daily tasks are easy for anyone in the office via the user-friendly, Android powered touchscreen interface. Plus, get the support you need right away with integrated, support articles and self-help videos.

- Save time with faster processing and no post office trips.
- Track spend in real time through the machine's touchscreen or online.
- Gain flexibility by enabling multiple departments to mail.

- Automatically save on postage versus Royal Mail stamps by franking directly from the TMR c65+.

Simplify the way your office sends domestic and international parcels with Royal Mail and Parcelforce Worldwide.

By integrating with the shipping label printer and the digital scale, the TMR c65+ solution makes it easy to weigh, compare service options, print shipping labels, track parcels and manage expenses online — for both carriers, all in one easy-to-use solution.

What's more, you could save up to 75% on Parcelforce retail rates and take advantage of Royal Mail Delivery Confirmation service.
